

By the Judgement of 18 July 2018 No. 33-II/2018 the Constitutional Court appraised constitutionality of Item 3 of Article 242 of the Budgetary Code of the Russian Federation.

The contested provision was a subject-matter of consideration insofar as it serves as grounds for a decision on the possibility to exact in court procedure from a constituent entity of the Russian Federation means of subsidy due to a municipal entity for exercise of functions of the administrative centre (capital) of the constituent entity of the Russian Federation by the end of a financial year, in which subsidies for these purposes were subject to transfer to the municipal entity in accordance with the budgetary law of the constituent entity of the Russian Federation, but were not transferred in full.

The Constitutional Court has recognised the contested provision as not contradicting the Constitution of the Russian Federation, so far as it contemplates no refusal to exact in court procedure from a constituent entity of the Russian Federation means of the said subsidy due to a municipal entity.
