

By the Judgement of 3 March 2026 No. 11-II, the Constitutional Court assessed constitutionality of Article 12 (part 9) of the Federal Law «On Social Guarantees for Employees of Certain Federal Executive Authorities and Amendments to Certain Legislative Acts of the Russian Federation»

The specified legal provision was the subject of review to the extent that, on its basis, the issue of indexing the amounts of one-time allowance paid in accordance with Article 12 (parts 2 and 4) of this Federal Law is resolved.

The challenged legal provision was recognised as not contradicting the Constitution to the extent that it provides for the annual indexation of the amounts of one-time allowance paid for the purpose of compensating for harm caused to the life and health of an employee in connection with the performance of official duties in institutions and bodies specified in Article 1 (part 1) of this Federal Law, and is thus aimed at anti-inflationary protection of these payments.

The challenged legal provision was also recognised as not conforming to the Constitution to the extent that, within the system of current legal regulation, it does not determine the moment from which the amounts of one-time allowance provided for in Article 12 (parts 2 and 4) of the said Federal Law, paid for the purpose of compensating for harm caused to the life and health of an employee in connection with the performance of official duties in institutions or bodies specified in Article 1 (part 1) of this Law must be indexed.

Until the appropriate legislative changes are made, the one-time allowances established in accordance with Article 12 (parts 2 and 4) of the Federal Law No. 283-FZ must be paid in amounts determined taking into account their indexation as of the time of actual payment.

Judicial decisions issued in the case involving the applicants on the basis of the challenged legal provision are subject to review in accordance with the established procedure, taking into account the temporary regulation (paragraph two of item 3 of the operative part of this Judgement).
