

By the Judgement of 10 April 2026 No. 23-II, the Constitutional Court assessed constitutionality of Article 53 (part 6) of the Federal Law № 342-FZ «On Service in Internal Affairs Bodies of the Russian Federation and Amendments to Certain Legislative Acts of the Russian Federation»

This legal provision was examined to the extent that it serves as a basis for resolving the issue of the right of an internal affairs officer who has been assigned a summarised recording of service time (in particular, with an accounting period of one year) to receive compensatory payment for the performance of official duties on non-working public holidays according to a shift schedule.

The contested legal provision was recognised as not contradicting the Constitution, since it does not imply that such an internal affairs officer may be deprived of the right to receive compensatory payment for the performance of official duties on non-working public holidays according to a shift schedule.
